

Handwriting Practice

Trace the sentence on the first line, then copy it yourself on the lines below — one page per sentence.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

The sun is warm today.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

I like to read books.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

My dog runs very fast.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

We play in the park.

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

The cat naps in the sun.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

I can write my name.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

Birds sing in the morning.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

She has a big red ball.

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

We eat lunch at noon.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

The fish swims in the pond.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

I see a big blue bus.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

Tom has a brand new bike.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

The rain falls on the roof.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

My mom makes good soup.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

We pick apples in the fall.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

The baby smiles at me.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

I brush my teeth at night.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

Ducks swim on the lake.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

He kicks the ball far away.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

The moon is bright tonight.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

We plant seeds in the spring.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

I help my dad cook dinner.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

The frog jumps into the pond.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

A bee hums by the flower.

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

We read a story together.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

The snow is soft and white.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

I wash my hands with soap.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

My friend lives near my house.

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

The train goes very fast.

HANDWRITING PRACTICE

Trace the gray sentence, then write it again on every line.

We sing a happy song.